The 1978 Crimson Log is dedicated to Mr. Walter Owen as an appreciative tribute.

Mr. Walter Owen

It's a varied and somewhat exotic career which Mr. Walter Owen has enjoyed through the years, ranging from the bohemian years in Greenwich Village with the likes of Maxwell Bodenheim, to the latter years within the confines of the New Bedford High School Art Department; his professional talents have served him — and us — well. He is artist, lecturer, traveller, photographer, caricaturist, teacher, and much more.

To his students, he has been an inspiration and a constant source of knowledge laced with the spirit of humor.

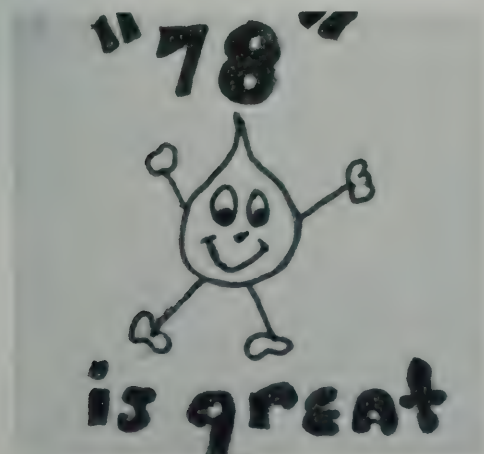

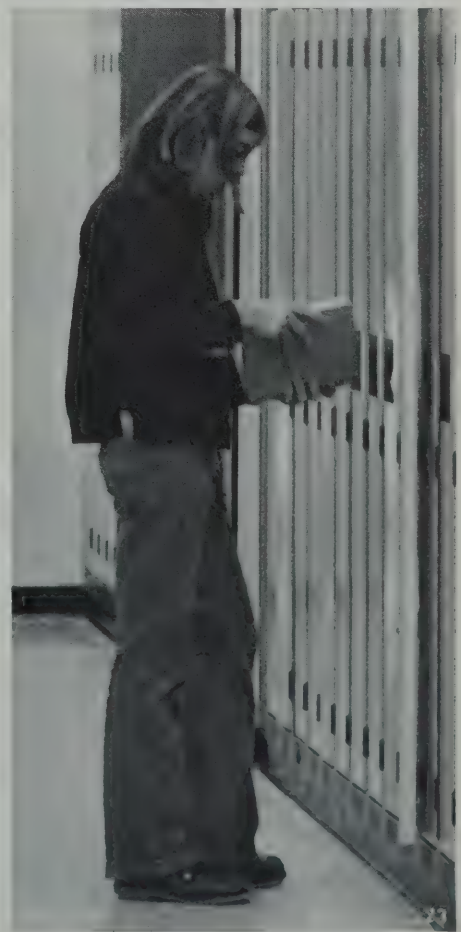

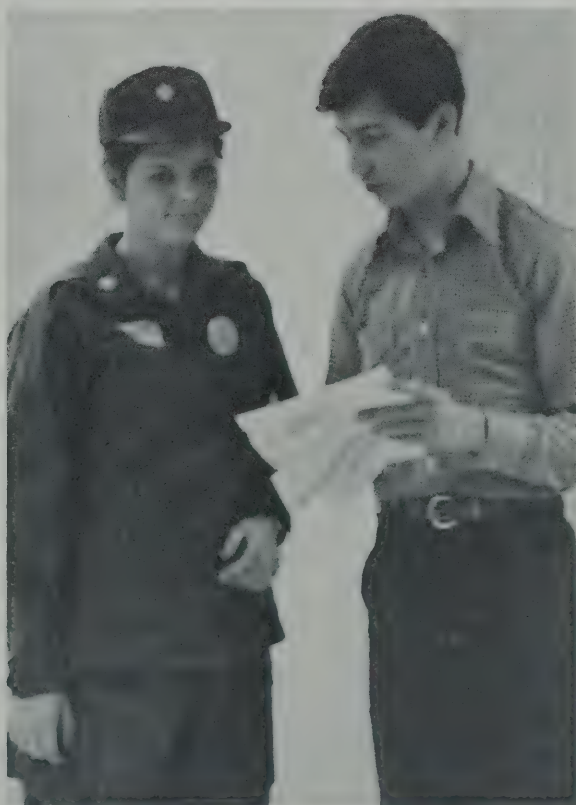

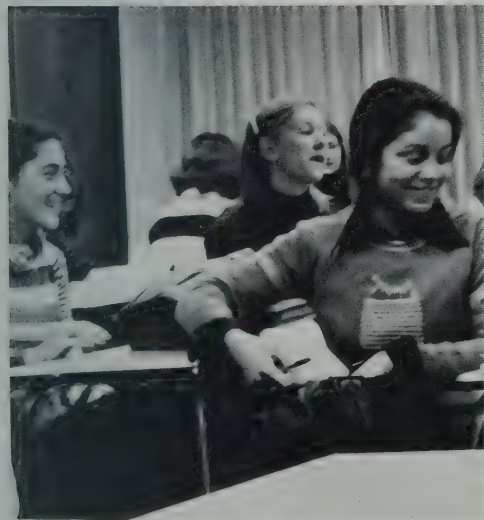

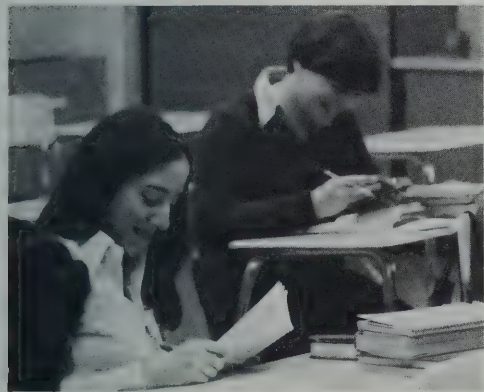

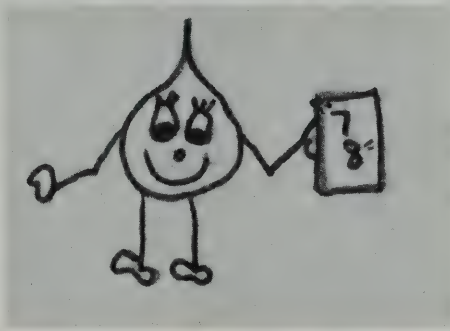

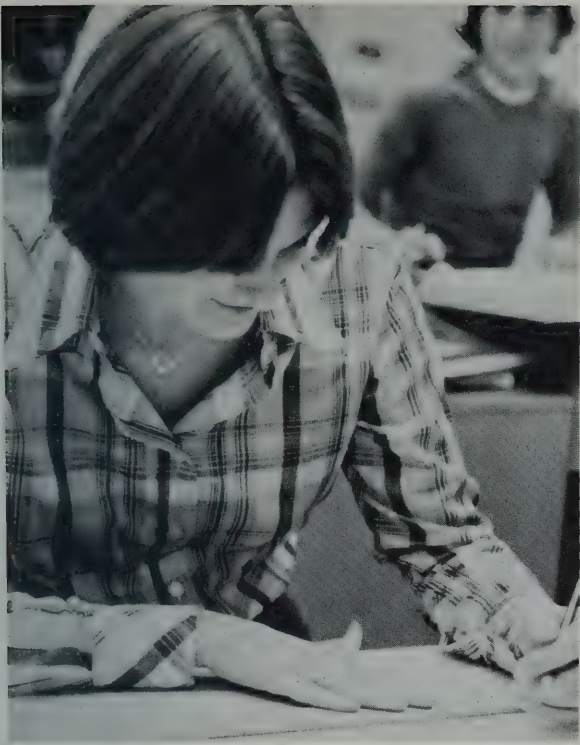

To his colleagues, he has been an involved and concerned member of the teaching team.

To the Crimson Log, he has been a never-ending source of ideas, materials, original designs and artwork for which we can never repay him.

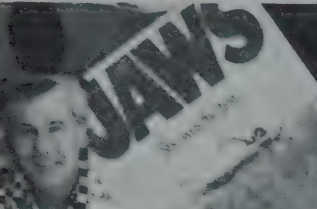

Now, as he retires from this high school, we wish him and his talented wife, Georgette, many happy, healthy years which we are sure they will fill with even more diverse and enriching experiences. We thank them and wish them God-speed.

MR. SAMUEL HORVITZ

MR. JOHN CALLANAN

Samuel Horvitz and John Callanan, both veteran members of the Social Studies Department, retired during the early part of the 1977-1978 school year. These respected educators, whose combined teaching careers have covered a period of over fifty years, will long be remembered by their students for their sincere dedication to teaching as well as symbolizing those ideals of good citizenship so necessary in the life style of today.

MRS. ISABEL SIMPSON, R.N.

Mrs. Isabel Simpson, R.N. began her nursing service at N.B.H.S. in 1963. During her tenure she spent twelve years as advisor to the Future Nurses Club.

She was extremely fair with all students and had a dry sense of humor that was appreciated by those who really knew her.

Isabel's words of wisdom to me were: "Never trouble trouble 'til trouble troubles you."

TOMMY ACEVEDO

"Ace" dislikes stuck-up people. Enjoys being with his niece, Alishia. Will always remember his parents for their love. Known for his dry humor. Bothered by his own possessiveness. To join the Navy after NBHS. "What, are you on drugs?" Anticipates a career as a comedian!

DEBBIE AGUIAR

Debbie is joyful when swimming, skiing, partying. Can always be found at Hazelwood Park. Definitely did not dig NBHS. Content with Bob and when everything's going her way. Destination doubtful. Wants very badly to see Hawaii.

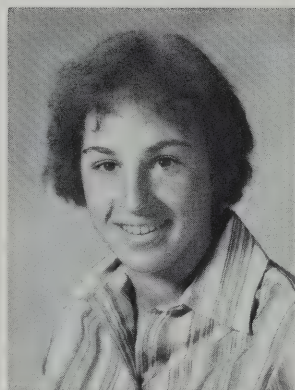

MARIA AGUIAR

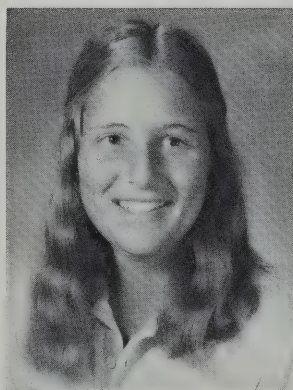

NATALIE AGUIAR

KAREN ALCOBIA

Karen's future holds nursing school, a house on a farm and Alan. Being crazy, wearing pigtails are her distinctions. One of Mrs. Parker's Sweat-hogs. Hooray for football games, volleyball and painting. Always smiling and looking forward to seeing Alan. Maybe Mexico?

BRUCE ALLAIN

To be a session musician in recording studio, own a Gibson Les Paul custom guitar. A pizza nut who lives at Lukulos'. Likes ice hockey and pizza. Regrets that he does not have perfect pitch, but wants perfect pizza. Going to music college near a pizza house. Arch. Drawing and Musician-ship were decent.

DALILA ALMEIDA

"Dee" is off to Providence College for nursing. Loves to skate and being a Senior. History and Ms. Howard were her favorites. Abject when there's nothing to do. Has a craving to travel all over the world and help the underprivileged. Dislikes snobs and the NBHS coat rule.

ELVIRA ALMEIDA

"Ellie" wants a Psych. or Spec. Ed. major. Noteworthy for not being noted. Irked by hypochondriacs and cafeteria food. Would adore living on desert island or in woodsy cabin. Proud of her patience but hates her shyness. College is next, then maybe N.Y. and England.

PETER ALPERT

Aficionado of photography who wants to spend life in hammock on his own 80-foot sloop, sailing the Caribbean with a small group of very mellow people, a jug of wine and Cat Stevens' music. "If 50,000,000 people say a foolish thing, it is still a foolish thing."

ROBIN ALTMAN

Robin is off to Northeastern to be a physical therapist. Can be found at Buttonwood Park having a good time with friends. Thought the Nursery was great, but NBHS rules awful. Some day wishes to have a happy marriage. Would enjoy swimming in Hawaii. "What's up?"

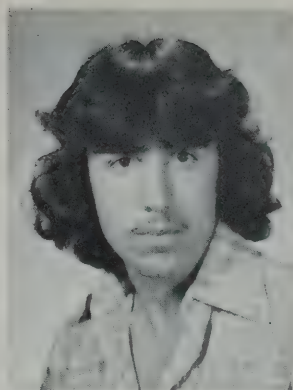

AVELINO J. ALVES

"Al" To be a math or science major. Dug playing sports or Saturday night parties. Always at S. End Friendly Fruit (hates working Sundays!). Enjoyed gym and the pool at NBHS. Appreciates his parents' goodness. Thought Mr. Newman's jokes hilarious. To SMU.

DAWN ALVES

"Doodie" Feels finest when dancing and cheering for NBHS. A future airline stewardess who will fly to Las Vegas and secretly wishes to be a professional dancer. Liked the variety of people and all sports at NBHS. Off to college. "Ya, I guess!"

MANNY ALVES

"Zing's" goal is computer technician. Enjoys music and sports and being with Crissy. Secret wish is to be a millionaire. Mostly in the Mall or parking in Padanaram. A candidate for college.

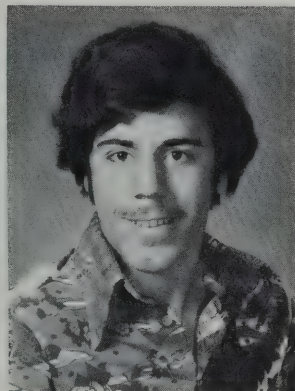

ANALIA AMARAL

MARIA GORETE AMARAL

Maria wants to be an executive secretary and see Bermuda. Annoyed by phony people and being loaded with homework. Regrets her laziness. Found near the Main Office. Will never forget falling down the stairs at NBHS. Goal: Kinyon-Campbell.

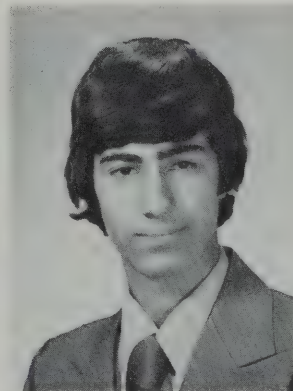

NELSON AMARAL

VIDALIA AMARAL

SCOTT LOUIS AMORIN

"Ammo" Hunting, fishing, road racing are hobbies. Football and concerts are O.K. too. NBHS No. 1 sax player. Mr. Rapoza and Band the best. Deplores his bad temper. He had too many dates for the same dance! His personality his best quality. "All Right!" To college.

BRUCE ANDERSON

"Andy" Will be bus. executive after BC, URI or Babson, but privately yearns to be musician or conductor. A lover of sports (esp. baseball, football) and jazz. Disliked NBH crowds but happy with resource centers, Biology and Ms. Bizzarro's Friday cookies. Writing for Crimson Courier was fun.

Dear friends at NBHS,

"New Bedford High School". I was in Japan when I just heard the name of this school. Upon seeing the school, its reality struck me as being much bigger than I had imagined.

I had a hard time making friends at first, because of my language difficulties. When asked my name, I could hardly say, "My name is Keiko. I'm from Japan." But then I began to realize that friendship begins with a smile and conversation.

I'm glad I had the opportunity to come and study with you. I'm proud to think of NBHS as my school. I will not forget the things that made my school life special — the cheering at football games, Thanksgiving spirit week, our volleyball team, the Christmas Concert, drama rehearsals, the History Club field trip, AFS activities.....

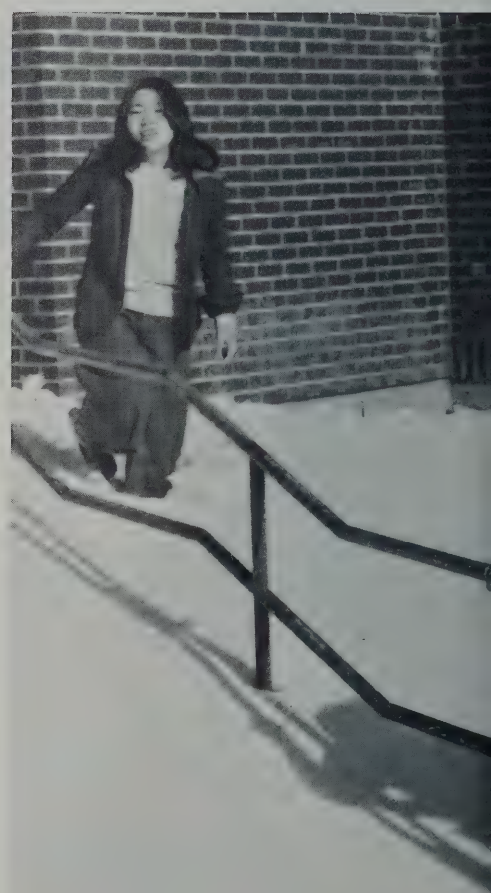

I have really enjoyed the experiences which I could not have had in Japan.

In the conclusion of this letter, I would like to thank all the faculty and senior class; you are my friends.

さようなら

Your friend,
Keiko Chikaishi

This year in New Bedford has been one of the best things that has ever happened to me. No words can describe the treasure I've received. I can only try to share a little bit of it: by living with a new family and going to your school, I've learned to look at the best side of everything, to lose my prejudices, and to understand and appreciate different ways. For me, America used to be an abstract picture without real soul. Now, it is a group of individuals who have become my friends.

At school, I've enjoyed a lot of new experiences, the joyful spirit, the different clubs, the sportive life, and the importance of music and creativity. Before I came, I was very anxious about what I was going to find in a big school of thousands (!!!), but I felt immediately at home, because everybody, both students and teachers, were so nice and helpful. I've never made so many friends in such a short time!

In exchange, I hope I've brought to you a little bit of Belgium, and that I've started to tie a bond of friendship between our two countries.

I wish everyone of you the best of luck for a happy future. Peace.

The Crimson Whalers

"We are the champions!" That was the cry of the New Bedford High School football team as they turned in a winning 6-4 record and clinched the Southeastern Massachusetts Conference Division I Championship. They shared the championship with rival Dartmouth High whom they defeated 13-6 in season play.

Led by Coach Bruce MacPherson and tri-captains Gary Crowell, Neil Jackson, and Gordon Smith, the Whalers had a bright season in more ways than one. Night football games became a reality as new lights were installed at Sargent Field, and the Whalers also defeated all of their local rivals, including Dartmouth High, Fairhaven High, New Bedford Voc.-Tech., and Thanksgiving Day foe, Durfee High.

QB Bruce Anderson led the Crimson offensive attack along with Tad Morris and Ken Johnson, while Crowell, Mark Correia, and Mike Cabral were our men in the trench.

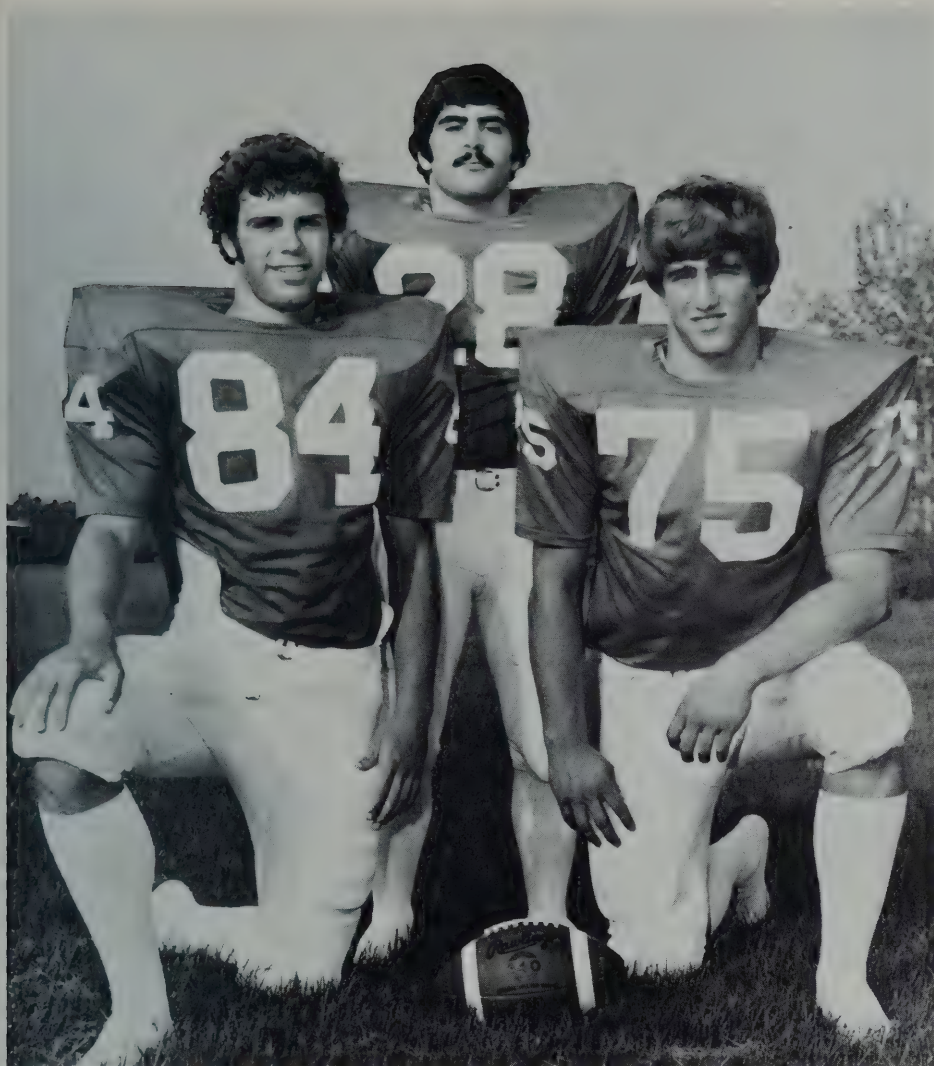

Congrats to Coach Mac and the team for a great season and the pride they brought to New Bedford High.

Our cheerleaders again brought much school spirit and pride to NBHS during the 1977-78 school year. Confronted with the task of training ten new girls out of twelve, they overcame their difficulties, and our girls again made up one of the best squads in the area. They supported all the NBH teams to the utmost, made Spirit Week an overwhelming success, and staged the best Durfee Rally ever!

Cheering at NBHS is much more than cute skirts and bobby socks, but rather a lot of hard work, effort, and many a pulled muscle. Along with cheering at games, the cheerleaders also enter competitions and are the defending champions of the Bishop Stang and Attleboro contests, as well as winning the State Championship.

Our many thanks to this year's cheerleaders as they put much time, effort, support, pride and spirit into NBHS.

The majorettes are a group of well-recognized girls who perform their twirling feats at football and basketball games and in majorettes' competitions throughout the area. When not performing at a particular game or event, they lend their enthusiasm and school spirit at all NBHS events.

The majorettes try out in May and practice throughout the summer, along with practicing daily during the school year, and host their own competition in the spring.

Being a majorette is a job that requires a lot of time and hard work, but the advantages and enjoyments are numerous. Along with having fun and showing tremendous school spirit, being a majorette is a rewarding and educational experience.

The volleyball team had a good season as they finished third in the SMC Division I with an even 5-5 record. The JV volleyballers finished 4-6.

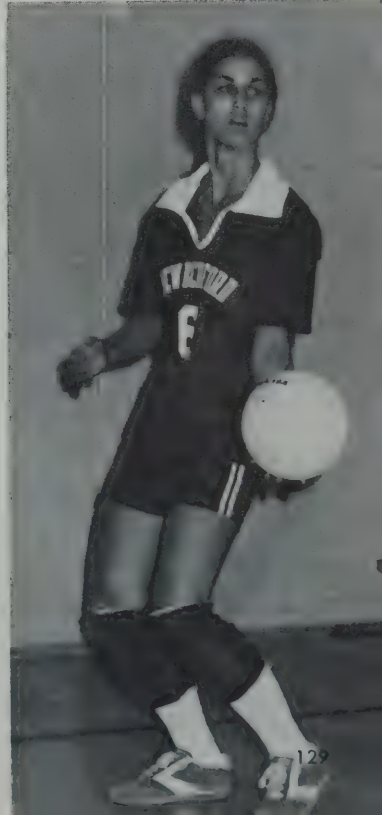

Coached by Karyn Bicker, the varsity squad was led by Co-Captains Cathy Arruda and Janice Hathaway, along with Eileen Fernandes and Japanese Exchange Student Keiko Chikaishi.

High points of the season included the Whalers' defeat of local rival and league standout Dartmouth High. In addition, Cathy Arruda and Cheryl Teodoro were selected to the SMC All-Star Team.

This being the Whalers' second season in the league, they are proud of their record and the increasing interest in volleyball at NBHS.

The Whaler soccer team finished its season with a good over-all record at 9-3-4, finishing third in the Southeastern Massachusetts Conference Division I, and qualifying and progressing to the State Tournament.

The Crimson season brought new faces in both players and coaches with new mentor Mr. Manny Mattos, of the Rhode Island Oceaneers soccer team, and Mr. Joe Gill, his assistant and Junior Varsity Coach. Mattos' personal experience was an asset to the Whalers, as he worked on many things with the young up-and-coming team.

NBHS was strong both offensively and defensively, with Victor Bernardo and Joe Lourenco putting the ball in the net, while John Samagaio and Arthur Melo kept the opposition away from the New Bedford end of the field.

The field hockey team had a red letter season, finishing with a 6-1-3 record in the SMC Division I and 8-2-3 tally overall.

Coached by Co-Capt. Laura Caton and Nancy Theodore, the season was highlighted by tremendous teamwork, defeat of league champion and state runner-up Bishop Stang, and plenty of controversy this season because there were boys on the team!

The Whalers, led by seniors Laurie Ainsworth, Bonnie Knox, Renee Morel, Cornelia Smith, Debbie Saulnier and Sue Costa, earned a state tournament berth, receiving a bye in the first round, but unfortunately they were eliminated in the third round. Congratulations for a job well done!

Injuries hurt in more ways than one as the cross-country team ended the season with a disappointing 0-6 record.

The bright spot of the season was the hard work and dedication of the Whaler squad, especially seniors Harold Miller, Ron Viera, Richard Winfield, and Doug Rogers.

The NBH Girls' Swim Team splashed its way to an even 5-5 record, led by Coach Kathy Buckley and Co-Capt. Gigi Griffin and Cathi Maccini.

The team was characterized not only by strong seniors but a tremendous complement of underclassmen. The Whalers had different folk for every stroke, with Gigi Griffin, Renee Ridzon, Amelia Santos, Katie Calnan, Cathi Maccini and Julie Britain leading the Senior contingent, while juniors Cheryl Lyonnais, sophomore Roxi Rose, and freshman Lisa Iacoponi will all be returning next season.

Perhaps one of the biggest signs of accomplishment and improvement was that the Crimson girls broke every previous girls' swimming record ever set at NBHS. This stands alone as the indication of dedication and hard work that the girls put into swimming. Congratulations, girls, for a job well done.

It's a bird, it's a plane . . .

The New Bedford High swim team met another season of competing in a tough league, but compensated by breaking many records and having many qualifiers for the Eastern Championships.

The Whaler aquamen, coached by Jim Medeiros, were led by Seniors Mark Touhey, captain, Mike Desautels, Steve Walsh, Steve Beauregard, John Bottomley, Ned Tsouprake, Tom L'Italien, and Neil Macedo.

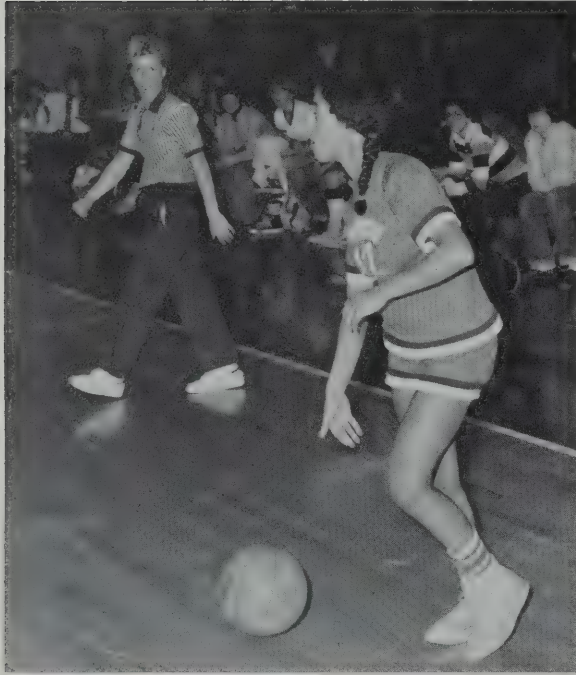

Macedo, who only started diving in his Junior year, broke his own marks twice to set a new diving record of 196.65 points. Junior Mike Fogaren had a tremendous season as he set four new marks and swam on a record-setting relay team. "Fogie" set marks in the 100-yard freestyle, the 50-yard freestyle, the 200-yard freestyle, and the 100-yard backstroke. The 400-yard freestyle relay team of Touhey, Peter Cabral, Fogaren, and Dave Perry also broke the NBHS record.

NBHS girls' basketball team had a winning season with decisive victories over Voke, Bishop Gerrard, and Westport. The highlight of the season was the two-point victory over Durfee at Durfee.

Leading the way in scoring were Tri-Captains Melany Martin and Gail Pina, Melany shooting from the outside and Gail from underneath. Leading the way in rebounding were Pina, tri-captain and Senior Kathy Arruda, Senior Elayne Gomes, and Sophomore Gwen Smith.

Leading the team in assists were the backcourt duo of Melany Martin and Junior Amelia Cruz. Also playing well was Senior Guard Glynda Stroud.

Coach John Pacheco

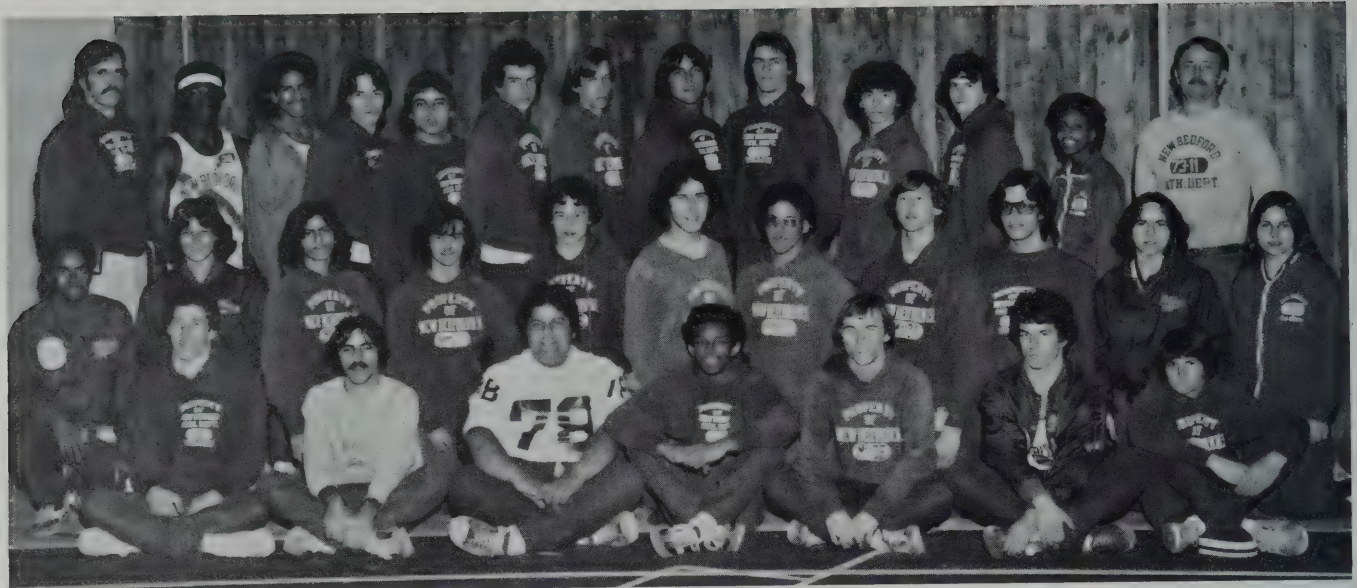

The New Bedford High basketball team did it again! With only one returning starter, things looked doubtful, but the Whalers hung together for perhaps the best season in recent NBHS history.

Led by Coach John Pacheco, and Tri-Captains Mike "Tyrone" Sheerin, Tony DePina, and Brian Houser, the Whalers began their season by defeating arch rival State Champion Durfee High in the Rogers Christmas Tournament in Newport. The Whalers met the Hilltoppers again at home, losing by only two points, but when they travelled to the Fall River Armory, they brought the roof down. They broke Durfee's 44 game winning streak to defeat the Toppers 57-56 in the last minute.

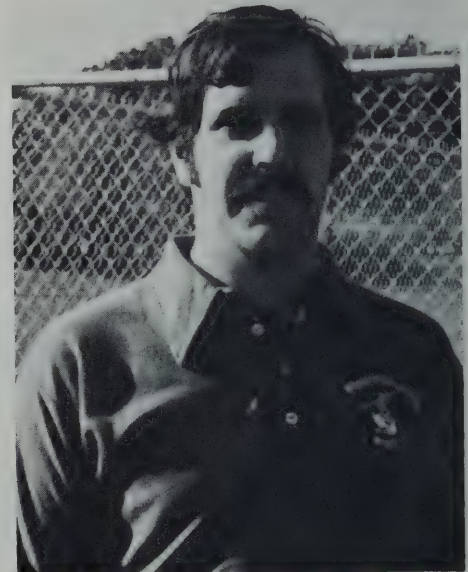

Other season highlights include hair-raising two point victories over Fairhaven High, and their qualification for the State Tournament. New Bedford High was also ranked Number 2 in the state. New Bedford's play was characterized by patience, tremendous teamwork, and a lot of depth. Seniors included Sheerin, DePina, Houser, and Gus Hodge, while the impressive underclass contingent was led by Juniors Dervin Watkins, Dwayne Lopes, and Sophomores Tony Williams and Eric Britto.

The New Bedford High winter track team, usually plagued by snowdrifts and sub-zero temperatures, finished their season with a 5-2-1 record, as they were able to move most of their meets indoors to the new facilities at Greater N.B. Regional Voke.

The Whalers' season highlight was winning the Voc-Tech Invitational, with great performances turned in by Tim Porter, Ken Johnson, and Dale Whiting, all of whom hold field house records there. The Whalers were also fortunate in being able to run at the State Coaches Meet at the new Harvard University indoor track facility, which is considered one of the best in the country.

Harold Miller, Ron Viera, and Jackie Bariteau were also very consistent for the Whalers.

"It was the best of years, it was the worst of years" is perhaps the best way to describe the New Bedford High hockey season. Plagued with the previous year's graduation blues and early season injuries, pre-season speculation didn't look good. However, the Whaler icemen defeated the oddsmakers, ending up with a winning record, some stunning upsets, along with a few heartbreaking losses.

The Whalers are coached by John Rolli and Jim Reul. Captain Mark Correia not only was one of the league's best defensemen but had the distinction of being elected captain as a junior.

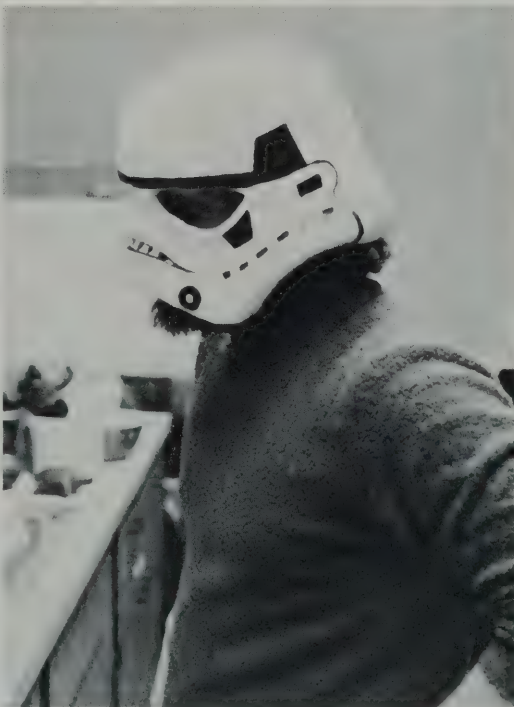

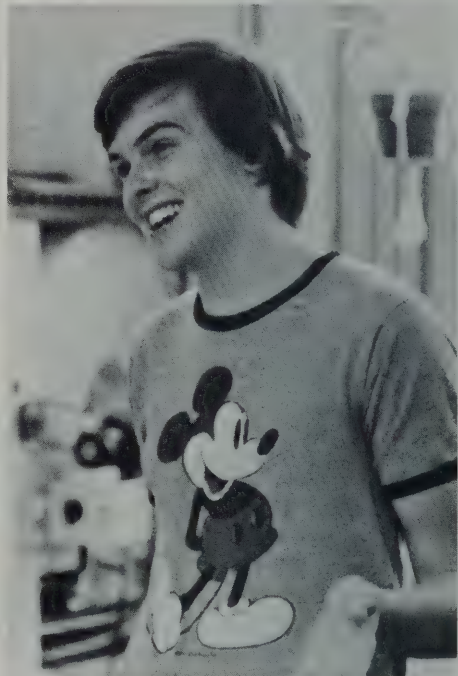

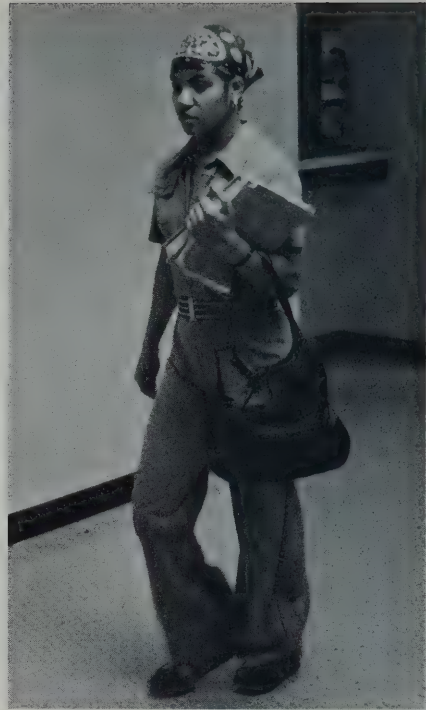

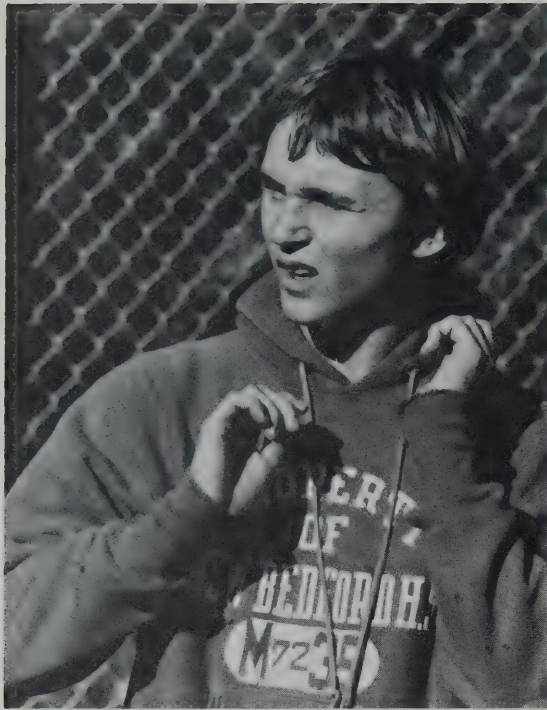

The Whalers began their season at the Silver City tournament as runners-up. It was in the semi-finals that the Whalers had their first defeat from Division I Power Somerset, 7-6. The Whalers split the two league games with the Blue Raiders as they went down in defeat 7-0, but came back to defeat Somerset on home ice, 3-1. New Bedford also tied Eastern Mass. ranked team Falmouth 3-3.

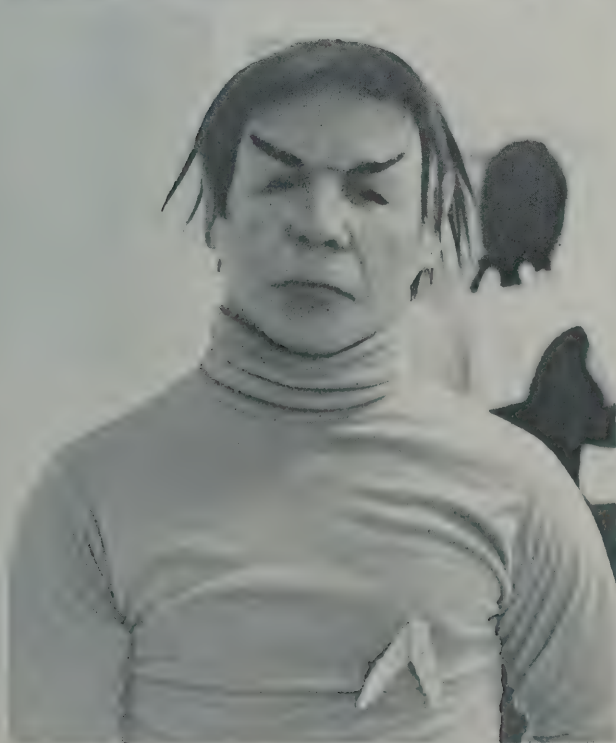

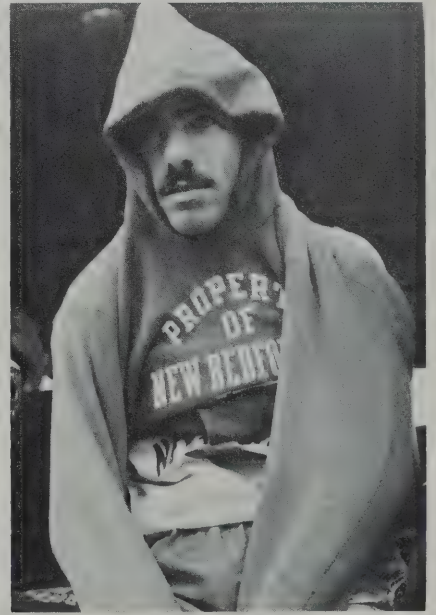

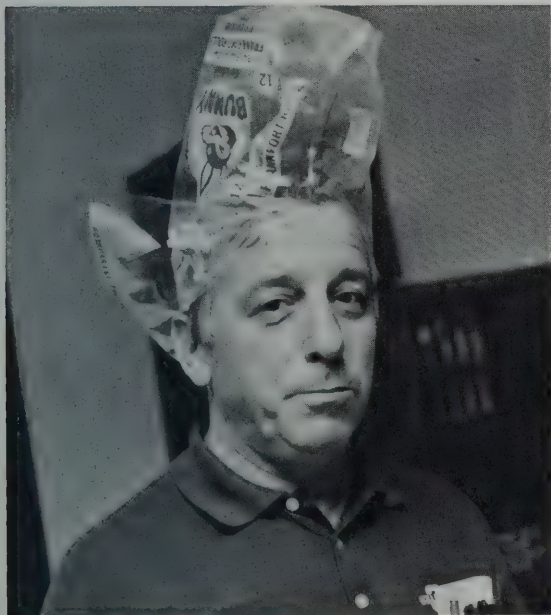

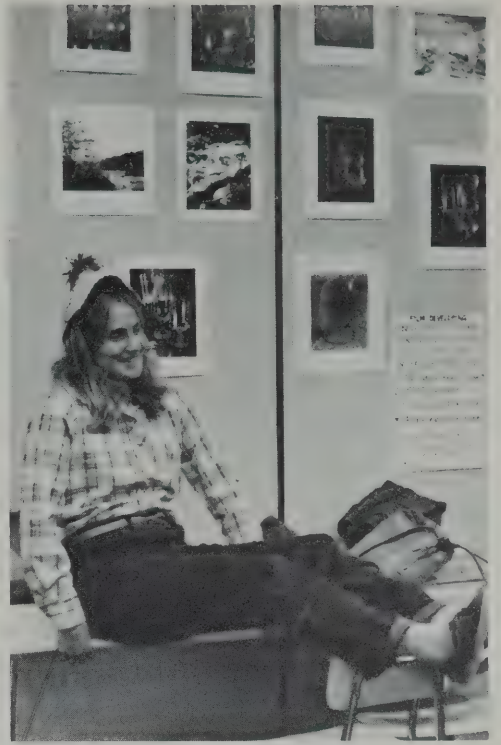

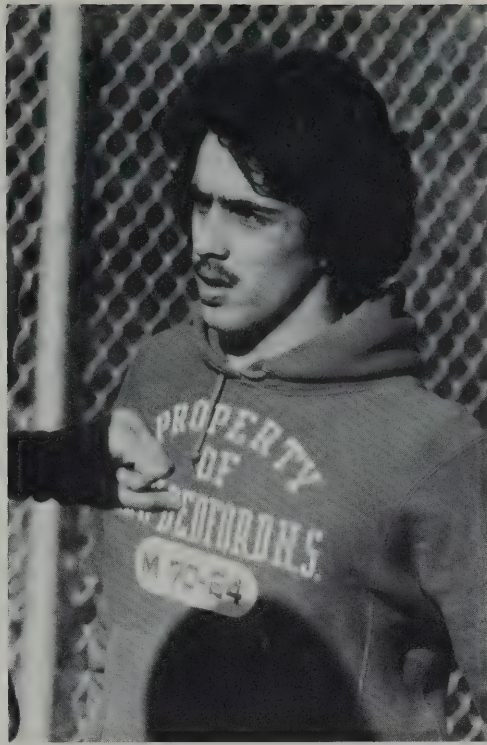

Junior Peter Lariviere set a new Whaler scoring mark as he had 22 goals and 18 assists for 40 points. This shattered the previous record of 26 points co-held by Bob Fitzsimmons and Mike Weber.

The Crimson game showed a lot of hustle and an aggressive style of forechecking, along with a solid defense. Senior Gary Crowell, Juniors Lariviere, Rick Smith and Doug Barrows, and Sophomores Tom Reynolds and Dennis Sylvia all were bright spots on offense, while Seniors Steve Pontes and Scott Franklin, Correia, and Sophomore Glenn Pontes led the tough defensive contingent. Sophomore Jon Karalekas and Senior Chris Kisbert both did really great jobs in goal.

What's Afoot?

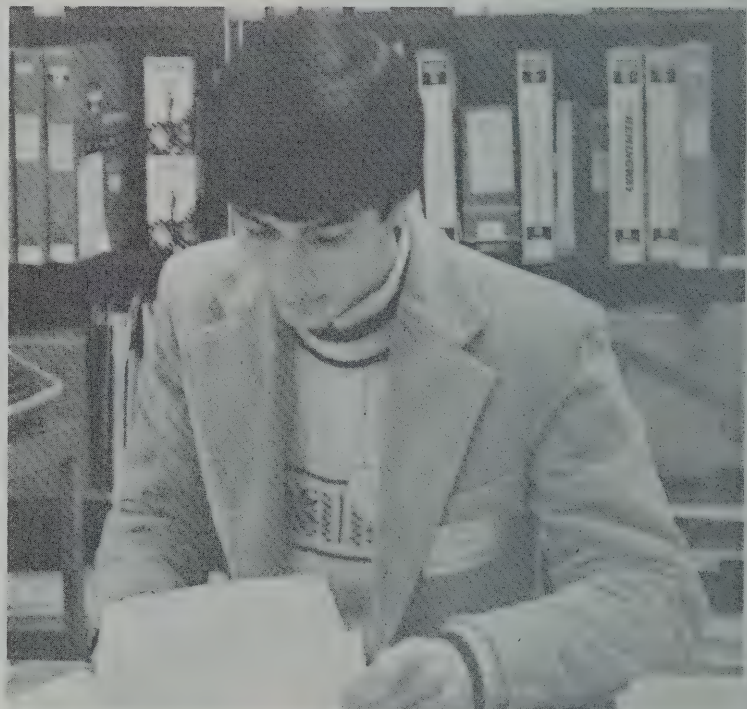

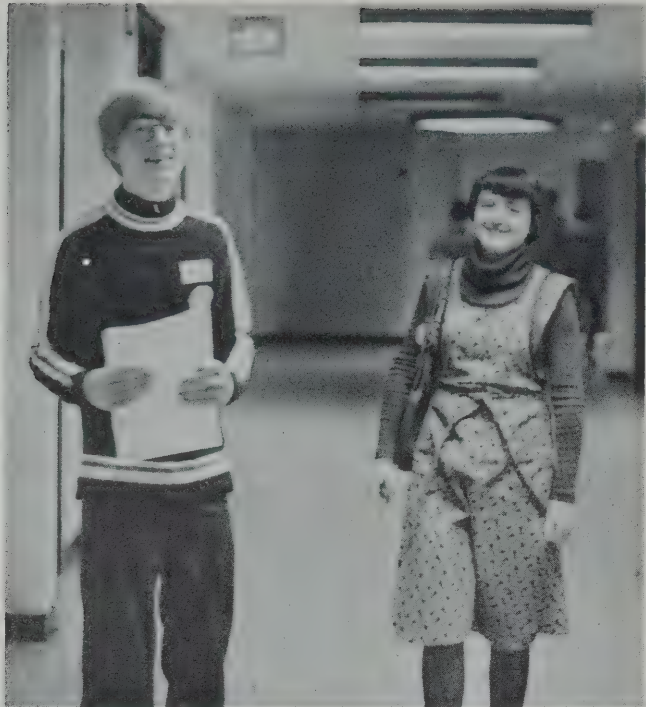

We have found that one's shoes often reflect his character. Here are some pictures just begging for captions. If your imagination is not inspired, there are some suggestions below.

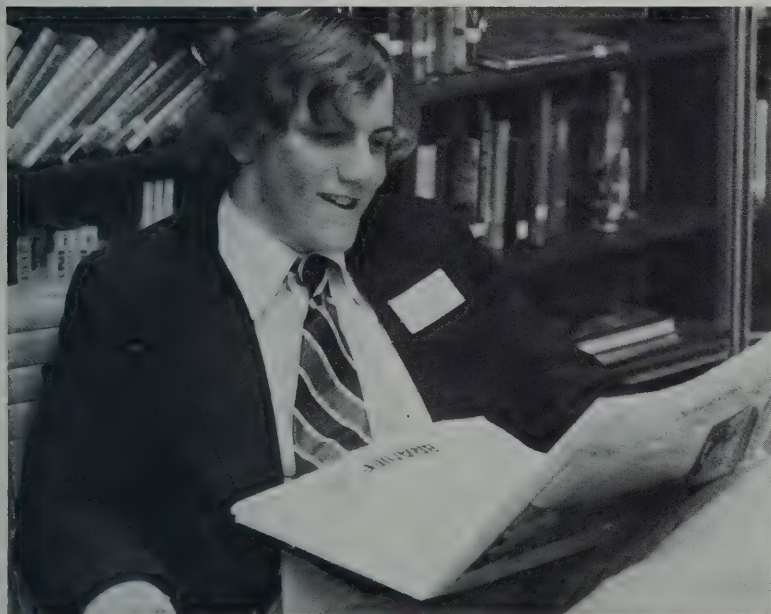

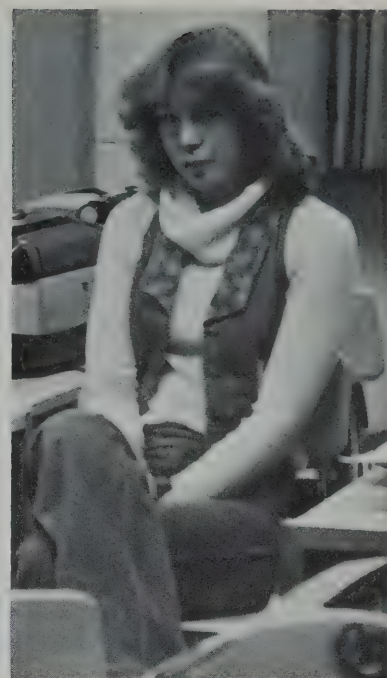

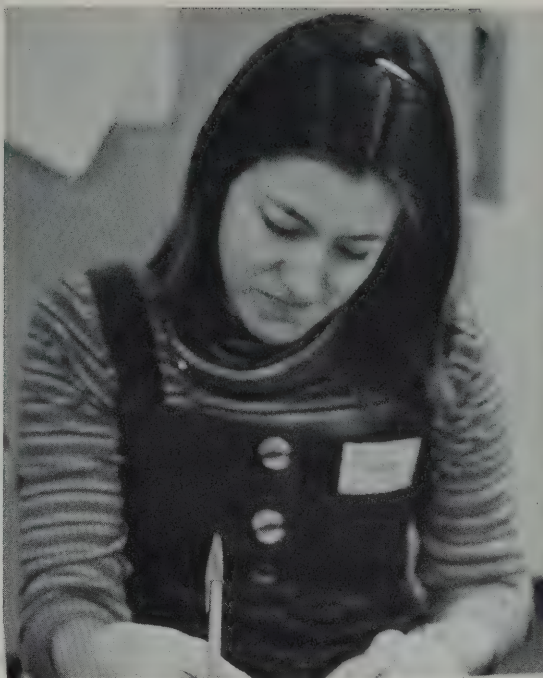

1. Does he think he's going to climb Mt. Kilimanjaro?
2. Slip-sliding away . . .
3. It's quality, not quantity!
4. You can always spot a freshman.
5. Stop mentally undressing me!
6. Great couple — like Mutt an' Jeff.
7. I'll bet he wears them to bed.
8. Listen, Joe, I heard that under those clogs she's got the best looking . . .
9. He says without them he's chronically tardy.
10. Super Foot disguised as a mild mannered work boot and his cohort Lois Lace.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1978, after four years at NBHS, have accumulated many recollections — some happy and some sad. In apprehension of our approaching demise as NBHS Seniors, we have set ourselves the task of passing along our possessions, as all mortals must. With deep affection and more than a bit of nostalgia, we endow the following with all we have to give.

Phil Coderre: a free trip to Trance-ylvania
Mrs. Ethel Towers: a look at the reading room from her resource center
Chris Buckley: a shark that bites
Miss Martha Wilde: 4,000 AFS students
Paula Berche and Karen Pelczarski: the "keys" to success
The Freshmen: a touch of class
Sheila LeFrancois: a complete week of school
Eva Zatir: an eternally elastic deadline
Gigi Griffin and Mark Touhey: life preservers
The Cooks: a McDonald's franchise
Bruce Kestenbaum: a filled black book
The Field Hockey Team: a sex test kit
David Carreiro: a presidential nomination
Sgt. Robert Morrison: a battalion commander like Dolly Parton
Faye Weitzman: a smile without silver
Mr. Theodore Calnan: a 180-day minimum attendance regulation
Mike Butler: his own A.V. department
Anne Small: the 1980 Miss Universe title
Keiko Chikaishi and Béné Grignard: two return tickets to the U.S.A., with our love
NBHS: a new recording of "The Star Spangled Banner"
Renée Ridzon: a twelve-course meal for lunch
Ms. Carol Sorenson: a megaphone
Tony DePina: nothing but net
Mr. John Robinson: a year without PA duty
Peter Alpert and Charlie Furtado: a perpetual Woody Allen festival
Mr. James Medeiros: platform fins
Missy Coury: one meeting with the entire steering committee
Mr. Ronald Nolin: une horloge sans mains
Kevin Morgado: a Richard instead of a dickey
Mrs. Catherine Hassey: a Congressman's pay and a book of new clichés
Howard Levin: Namir Habboosh
Mrs. Regina Keightley: a ready-made float
Bob Horowitz: a tennis game with Arthur Ashe
Mrs. Roberta Sawyer: a Mrs. G.
Donna Ramos: Liza Minnelli's role in "Cabaret"
The Juniors: senioritis
Mr. James Kelly: another Celtic championship
Sheri Elias: a giggle that quits
Mr. Michael Longo: a police whistle
Katie Calnan: a day without having to see the principal after school
The entire student body: another year with 2 February vacations
